Dr Sir

I have written to you twice in regard to your Note for $1000 due in June last, which was transferred to me by Daniel Whitney of Green Bay, but have been mortified not to have received from you a line in reply. Your known character for correctness & promptitude forbid me to attribute the non-payment of the Note, & the failure to acknowledge my letters, to any thing else, than that the last have never reached you.

Will you allow me to say that the Note is now in the hands of Doctor Foot of Fort Winnebago who will receive payment. It is negotiable & payable at New York but it will be sent, by Dr. Foot upon yr request, to St. Louis.

Be pleased to acknowledge the receipt of this, and assure yourself of the high regard of Yours Respectfully J. W. Ball.

Dr. J. Beaumont.
